The Plimsoll Mural – Commissioning and installing a colourful and properly protected , framed mural on one wall of the Fishing Museum at Folkestone Harbour painted by a noted ,local artist , Shane Record .

DECISION:

To provide funding of £ 200 to the above project.

Reason for decision:

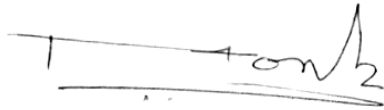

The Fishing Museum is enthusiastic and hopeful that the project will help it. The local fishermen on the trust of the museum are supportive. Go Folkestone members and others have been producing and selling Aspects of Folkestone calendars for the last two years with this project as the major one in mind because of its link to a Folkestone favourite and its potential to brighten the harbour . The people on the Plimsoll group and local historians have supported the project because he has real links with the town , having retired to it and been buried in Cheriton , whence his coffin was man-hauled by local sailors from his flat in Augusta Gardens in 1898 .
