Name and description of project:

Welfare and Counselling Spaces
A refresh of our Counselling and Welfare rooms, to create a nicer environment and safe space for young people, parents and families to access one to one emotional support.

DECISION:

To provide funding of £ 500 to the above project.

Reason for decision:

The Romney Resource Centre provides essential help for some of the most vulnerable members (and their families) within our community so the creation of a nicer environment for young people, parents and families to access one to one emotional support will help the organisation deliver its services The funding will facilitate redecoration, soft furnishing and calming art work to create a safe space for young people to feel able to open up and is a positive endorsement of the organisation's life-changing work.

Declarations or disclosable pecuniary interest/any other significant interest:

The decision set out above was made by me.
